

About the Northern Colorado Medical Society

NORTHERN COLORADO MEDICAL SOCIETY

The Northern Colorado Medical Society provides a forum for the discussion of social, scientific and legislative concerns affecting the health of local physicians and patients. We advocate on behalf of physician members and work to promote better health in northern Colorado. The Larimer County Medical Society (established in 1903) and the Weld County Medical Society merged in 2014 to form the Northern Colorado Medical Society to better serve our region.

The mission of NCMS is to advocate on behalf of our physician members, to encourage a strong and healthy medical profession, and to improve the health and wellbeing of all people in our community.

NCMS condemns racism, injustice and discrimination in all forms. We stand united for diversity, equity and inclusion. We are committed to mutual respect, listening and understanding for our patients, physician colleagues and community.

Serving our community

Our directory helps patients in our community find local physicians. Our website features local medical news, events and links to other health organizations. Visit www.nocomedsoc.org.

We provide educational opportunities for physician members, working to ensure that social trends and their impact on the health of the community are assimilated into best practices. We participate in community initiatives that address health issues and serve on coalitions promoting better health.

In support of our mission, NCMS will:

- Provide an opportunity for all physician members to meet and discuss concerns.
- Promote high-quality health care to the community.
- Provide services that meet the needs of our members.
- Serve as a forum for health care information.
- Advocate for our members and patients in the public arena.
- Maintain a close working relationship with the Colorado Medical Society and strive to educate our local membership of our common objectives.
- Forge and maintain partnerships with the local health departments, hospitals, health facilities, other community organizations and the media in advocating for or responding to the health of our community.
- Maintain and provide an organization with the high standards necessary to fulfill the above purposes.

Thanks to our Sponsors

NCMS thanks the following businesses who support northern Colorado physicians and patients through the Friends of NCMS program. For information on joining
